

Patricia Poole, a native Nevadan and an educator for 32 years with the Clark County School District, was born in Las Vegas and resided in Jean, NV for more than 20 years. Her family, with business connections in Jean, lived there for more than 40 years. She attended Goodsprings Elementary School as well as Rancho High School in Las Vegas, University of NV, Reno and University of NV, Las Vegas. A strong affinity continues for the historic sites and the rich mining background of the Goodsprings Township area.