

SANDY VALLEY HISTORICAL MEETING

Free Free Free

On Saturday, October 15, 2011

"The Frank & Edith Williams Story"

A biographical account of the lives of Sandy Valley pioneers Frank and Edith Williams who lived here from the 1890s until the 1940s. Mr. Williams was elected to the Nevada Assembly as a representative of Lincoln County (of which present-day Clark County was once a part) for several terms and then was elected to the Board of Regents for the University of Nevada.

Photographs and a DVD of the lives of these two colorful individuals will be presented by Mrs. Leanne Ferdig of Las Vegas, a Williams granddaughter.

*11 a.m.--meet at the site of the Williams' grave in Goodsprings Cemetery.

*12 noon--drive over the mountains to the Sandy Valley School where local history lovers will be afforded a rare look at the history of the area.

*Dessert (Did we mention, It's free!!)